

Release Plan - Sprint 5

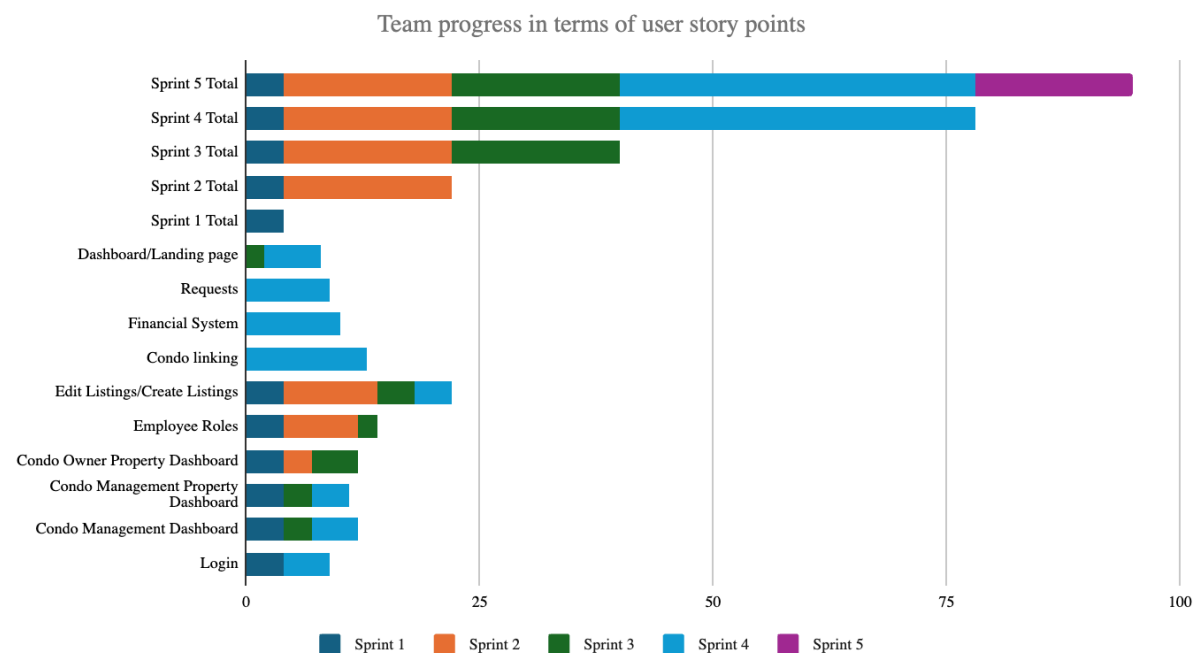

Chart 1: Team progress Sprint 5

As Sprint 4 was extended, our team capitalized on the additional time, achieving a record-breaking completion of 40 user story points. This milestone not only reflects our highest productivity yet but also demonstrates our adaptability and dedication to the project's goals. We successfully addressed a significant portion of the backlog, pushing forward critical features and enhancements.

Looking ahead to Sprint 5, while recognizing that there is still substantial work to be completed, we want to channel our efforts towards the reservation system and notifications. These features are crucial for the project's next phase and will be our top priority. Our goal for the upcoming sprint is not only to continue our momentum but to finalize all the planned functionalities, ensuring a robust and efficient delivery.
